Conference Theme Chorus

Homecoming Reports

The fourteenth annual fall homecoming and the accompanying twentieth missions conference emphasized the school motto as the theme this year. The chorus written by Virginia Seguire '54 was featured for this occasion. Additional copies are available upon request.

The main speaker for the missionary conference was Dr. Manford G. Gutske, radio broadcaster and Bible teacher, who served as professor of Biblical exposition and Christian education for 27 years at Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Ga. His personal approach and application were heart-warming.

Bryan alumni who shared in the missionary ministry included the following:

Glenn '52 and Marjorie Crumley, just returned from Congo under Berean Mission;

Ralph '54 and Melba (Mays) '55 Maynard, now residing in Orlando, Fla., while on furlough from West Irian under Unevan. Fields Mission.

Larry '57 and Shirley (Ardelean) '56 Fehl, Sudan Interior Mission representatives who have completed one term in Nigeria;

Francis Neddo '54, worker with Cedine Bible Mission which ministers particularly to Negro youth and adults with headquarters in Spring City, Tenn.

Evelyn Robinson '62, an appointee under World-wide Evangelization Crusade for teaching in Liberia, Africa.

Charles (Dick) Gallini x'63 has been in Vietnam for a 12 month tour of duty with the U. S. Army. Beth (Kahle) x'62 and their children, Jeff 3½ years, and Robbie, 10 months, are living in Dallas, Texas.

Mike '60 and Charlotte Ann (Price) x'62 Massey are in Columbus, Ohio, where Mike is a supervisor with Western Electric. They have one daughter.

SPECIALLY SELECTED

By John '54 and Pat Kramer an adopted daughter, Melody Joy, at nine weeks in Dallas, Tex.

By Robert '59 and Barbara x'61 Terpstra a daughter, Brenda Sue, at seven weeks to join Beth Ann in their Grand Rapids, Mich., home where Bob is pastor of Wyoming Park Baptist Church.

Daniel Hirschy '41 has returned to Koumra, in Chad Republic, Africa, with his wife, Eleanor and their youngest daughter, Kathy. Their oldest daughter, Elaine, is married. Judy is a student at Cedarville College, and Linda will finish high school this year in Wheaton.

Ralph '37 and Rebecca (Haeger) '38 Toliver reported a moving of the Spirit of God in the Philippines. In a two-week campaign at their old station of Bauan, Batangas, 43 decisions were made by people with whom they had worked for six years.

Eugene '44 and Ernestine (Healan) '44 Rosenau arrived in U. S. April 30 for furlough. They are living in Greenville, S. C., while their sons, Douglas and Vernon, and their niece, Judy, attend Bob Jones Academy. Their daughter, Anna Kay, is majoring in home economics at Bob Jones University.

Bruce '47 and Wilma (Walker) x'49 Rosenau continue at the station in Sibut maintaining the Print Shop and training the Bible School students and assisting African pastors.

Edward '46 and Eileen (Goodman) '46 Miller left Los Angeles on Aug. 17 aboard the SAKURA MARU going through the Panama Canal to Belem, Brazil, under the Foreign Missionary Society of the Brethren Church. They have been home about four years because of the children's education. They are now leaving Carol Ann, who is in nurses' training, and Jeanette, who is a sophomore in high school to live with friends in Modesto, Calif. Eddie and Stanley returned with their parents to Belem to attend a missionary school in Belem.

Wanda Burcham '49 returned to India by ship in August. She is helping with Leper Clinics seeking to minister to the people both medically and spiritually.

MISSIONARIES IN THE NEWS

Grace (Theobald) x'46 and Clare McGill returned in August with their two sons, Tim and Terry, to Taipei, Taiwan, to continue their translation work of the New Testament in the Tayal language. They have completed Mark and are being encouraged by Dr. Nida of the American Bible Society to finish the New Testament during this term.

Wanda Lautzenheiser '49 described severe flood damage to their supply of Bibles and hymnals as a result of a thunderstorm in Japan that put about three feet of water in their Good News Bookstore. Far Eastern Gospel Crusade, with whom Wanda works, is seeking to establish more Good News bookstores and place gospel displays in 100 dispersed cities of Japan.

Bessie Degerman '53 is scheduled to sail on the SS IBERIA from San Francisco on November 2 to return to Japan under TEAM. She worked at Gull Lake Bible Conference this past summer except for two weeks of camps at Oak Hills in Bemidji, Minn.

Helen Gow '48, Nadine Schick '54, Glenn Crumley '52, and Hugh Coombs '50 were reunited in Congo in July at Katanti station, one which they had to leave during the Congo disturbances. An airstrip was built at Katanti under Glenn Crumley's direction just before he left for furlough. MAF is providing assistance through Ernie Doerksen and his 5-seater Cessna. The Crumleys returned for furlough at the end of July and are living in Royal Oak, Mich.

Hugh '50 and Kay Coombs who arrived with Lois and Miriam in the Congo on June 15 are living at Bukavu, the Mission's new base, where Hugh has responsibility for much of the mission's legal and administrative affairs.

World Relief Commission. This self-help project is designed to guide Vietnamese refugees in rehabilitation and learning a vital skill. The return of Bob and Mildred (McBride) x'51 Davis to Viet Nam has been delayed by the unsettled situation there. They are living in Ohio at present.

William J. Roller x'52 is in Korea doing missionary work through Christian literature, sponsored by the Emmaus Bible School of Oak Park, Ill. He has a three-year visa for Seoul, Korea, and is studying the language.

John '54 and Joyce (Johnson) '54 Rathbun began classes at Kwan Dong College in Korea on August 23 and are carrying extra loads until two families return from furlough. John also has responsibility as dairy supervisor, serving as chaplain with U.S. Air Force men each Sunday morning, and directing Youth for Christ activities.

Roger and Naomi (Hildebrand) '55 Walkwitz saw the ordination of four elders to lead three new churches in Banaue, Ifugao, Philippines. One elder has had training in their Bible School and the other three have received training from the Walkwitzes. In July their 6½-year-old son had a hernia operation in Manila. Now he and brother Randy are school boys with their mother as teacher.

Malcolm Bradshaw '56 reports good response in Djakarta, Indonesia, to efforts in evangelism and Bible teaching. For the past year and a half he has been helping to plant evangelistic cell groups. Ads in leading national newspapers brought 325 requests in 30 days for free Gospels. A free correspondence course was also offered to inquirers.

In April, 11 boys from Djakarta Seminary took a four-day intensive evangelism course and after studying went out to visit in homes of rich and poor. The Bradshaws plan for furlough in April 1967.

Mac and Rhoda Bradshaw

Todd, Greg

Jessie, Caroline

David '52 and Mary (Grover) '53 Naff this fall began the last year of their term. David is assistant technical director at Radio Station ELWA in Monrovia, Liberia, under Sudan Interior Mission, and Mary is acting principal of their elementary school.

Jack '52 and Marian Lacey and four children returned to Uganda early in July. They took a truck and camper on the ship and disembarked at Cape Town. They drove some 7,000 miles visiting mission stations along the way. An encounter with an elephant herd and a black Mamba snake reminded them of God's protection in the face of danger.

Millie Mosby x'53 writes of plans for an all-out evangelistic effort in December through house-to-house visitation in Nigeria. Preparations have already begun through Bible study and prayer groups of believers. Also in December Millie will give the evening messages at a teen-age girls' camp attended by girls from all over Nigeria and for many it will be a first Christian camping experience.

Armond '54 and Lenora '54 Fritz report plans in Rhodesia for the Evangelical Bible School and the Light of Life Correspondence course to build a new school in the town of Sinoia on a plot of 17½ acres granted by the government. Bud and Lolly have been teaching in the Bible school.

Robert '54 and Mary (Barth) '55 Lehnhart left headquarters in Fullerton, Calif. at the end of May to serve on one of the Missionary Aviation Fellowship programs at Shell Mera, Ecuador. They are replacing one of the families who came home on furlough.

Gleanings from the 1962 Class Letter

Tim Amundson '62 has been enrolled in Grand Rapids Baptist Seminary and will continue his second year of studies following marriage to the school nurse of Grand Rapids Baptist Bible College.

Dan '62 and Mary (Atkinson) '62 Berry moved to Strasburg, Pa., so that Dan may join his father in his practice since receiving his doctor of chiropractic degree. Mary is pursuing her teaching profession in Pa. as she did in Iowa, while Dan studied in Davenport.

Jerry '59 and Ruth (Engel) '62 Sisson write about their ministry in Litchfield, Mich. "In August 1962 we accepted a call as pastor to the First Baptist Church of Litchfield. We departmentalized our Sunday School into 8 departments with a unified Sunday School and children's church program. We each taught a half day in the public school system in the junior high department (1964-65)...and established Pioneer Girls and Christian Service Brigade which has an outreach to 85 or more youth each week. In April, 1965, we dedicated a new educational unit and in a matter of weeks will have completely remodeled our sanctuary and old building. This summer for five weeks we served as director of Samp Selah, which our church has helped for many years.

Bill '62 and Joyce Stanton moved to Pensacola, Fla., immediately after Bill's graduation where he entered the Navy and Officers' School. After five months of school he was commissioned an Ensign in the U. S. Navy. "In May, 1964, I received my Navy Wings of Gold after 16 more carrier landings on old 'Tex' and an instrument rating in multi-engine aircraft. I received orders to San Diego, to a Pilot Replacement Air Group and transitioned to the P2V Neptune Reconnaissance Bomber which I am still flying today."

In San Diego, he was promoted to Lieutenant and from there was ordered to Patrol Squadron 42, based at Whidby Island Naval Air Station in Oak Harbor, Wash., just north of Seattle where Lowell and Nancy Martin live whom they visit from time to time. "In September of 1965, Patrol Squadron 43 deployed to Leusakuni, Japan and Saigon, Viet Nam for 6 months. Each of us spent 3 months flying out of Tan Son Nhut Air Base in Saigon and 3 months in Japan.

I had just returned to Japan after flying my 36th mission in Viet Nam when I learned of the death of our youngest son, Richie, in Davenport, Iowa, where Joyce was visiting.

"We have a whole year at home before we deploy again to Japan and Viet Nam in March of 1967.

Charles Westgate '62 was drafted to the U.S. Army and went to electronics school and worked on missile guidance units. He was stationed in Germany for 13 months and had opportunity to visit the Zopfi family at the German Bible Institute.
